Educational activities - Description

The Baleria Domino

Activity

Children start to draw the border of their own hand on the sheet. Then they write their name into the hand. Once all children have personalized their A4-sheet, everyone gathers for the grand finale with the A4-sheets hanging visibly around the neck. Each child searches the matching word-string to form the complete word. After that the "matched Dominos" form a large circle.

Objectives

- The activity promotes teamwork and highlights the number of words related to Fair Play and Fair Life

Participants

- 12/250 participants
- 6/10 years old

Target Groups

Educational activities - The process

The Baleria Domino

The children personalize the A4-Sheets by encircling their own hand and writing their name in the middle. Then they put the paper with the string around their neck.

Each kid finds the partner who has the matching syllable / word string to complete the word.

When all dominos are completed, everybody comes together in a big circle reading all the words.

The game can be extended to more complex words or words consisting of more than two parts.

educational activities description

The Baleria Puzzle

Activity

A big puzzle of the Baleria family is made with all children. Each class designs 4 puzzle pieces that need to be glued together. Each child paints himself and his siblings as BALERIA puppets, who hold hands. The children write the name and the age under the puppets.

Objectives

-The activity promotes recognizing differences between people and respecting everyone equally. The children have to work as one team and support each other.

Participants

- 400 children in 16 classes (each class has 25 children)
- 6/10 years old

Target Groups

All children

Educational activities - The process

The Baleria Puzzle

The class is divided into 4 groups. Each group gets a piece of paper ('puzzle piece') and one pen per child.

Each child paints himself and his siblings as BALERIA puppets, who hold hands. The children write the name and the age under the puppets. The completed puzzle pieces have to be glued together as a rectangle.
